Civil Action No. RMW

RS
COMPLAINT FOR DECLARATORY AND INJUNCTIVE RELIEF

I. INTRODUCTION

This is an action under the Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. 552, as amended, ("FOIA") to order the production of agency records related to Plaintiff Hajro which have been improperly withheld from him. This lawsuit also seeks injunctive relief to enforce the strict time requirements under FOIA. Finally, this action seeks to enforce the terms of a nationwide settlement agreement related to FOIA entered into between Plaintiff Mayock and Defendants and their

Hajro v. USCIS

Complaint for Decl. and Injunctive Relief

1 predecessors for the benefit of aliens such as Plaintiff Hajro

3 II. PARTIES

4 1. Plaintiff, Mirsad Hajro is a lawful permanent resident and resides in 5 San Jose, California. His alien registration number is A77 428 444. He 6 previously was the plaintiff in Hajro v. Gonzales No. C 06-7827 JW.

7 2. James R. Mayock is an immigration attorney who resides in San
8 Anselmo, California. He practices immigration law in San Francisco, 9 California.

10 3. Defendant United States Citizenship And Immigration Services
11 ("USCIS") is an agency within the Department of Homeland Security which has 12 the custody and control of alien registration files. USCIS is also charged by law
13 with the duty of adjudicating N-400 applications for naturalization under 14 8 U.S.C. §1430 (a). USCIS is an agency within the meaning of 5 U.S.C. §552(f).

15 4. Defendant T. Diane Cejka is sued in her official capacity as the 16 Director of the USCIS National Records Center. The National Records Center
17 ("NRC") is the central repository of the agency's alien files and records
18 responds to FOIA requests for copies of these records. The NRC also is the 19 office which has possession of the records Plaintiffs seek.

20 5. Defendant Rosemary Melville is sued in her official capacity as the 21 District Director of the USCIS San Francisco District Office. The District
22 Director has oversight responsibilities over the San Jose Field Office where 23 Plaintiff Hajro's naturalization appeal is pending. In addition, the San 24 Francisco District Office was named in the original settlement agreement which 25 is a subject of this lawsuit.

26 6. Defendant Michael Chertoff is sued in his official capacity as the

1 Secretary of the Department of Homeland Security¹. In this capacity he has 2 responsibility for the administration and enforcement of the immigration laws
3 pursuant to 8 U.S.C. §1103(a) including the accurate, efficient and secure
4 processing of immigration benefits.

5 7. Defendant Michael B. Mukasey is sued in his official capacity as the 6 Attorney General of the United States and is charged with the authority and 7 duty to direct, manage, and supervise all employees and all files and records of 8 the Department of Justice. The Department of Justice signed a nationwide
9 settlement agreement on May 21, 1992 which is a subject of this lawsuit.

10

11 III. JURISDICTION

12 8. This Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to 5 U.S.C.
13 §552(a)(4)(B) (Freedom Of Information Act), 5 U.S.C. §551 et seq., 5 U.S.C. §
14 555(b), §702, §704 and §706 (Administrative Procedure Act), and 28 U.S.C.
15 §1331 (federal question) as this action arises under the Freedom of Information
16 Act. 5 U.S.C. §552 et seq.

17 9. This Court has jurisdiction to enforce the settlement agreement
18 reached in Mayock v. Immigration And Naturalization Service, Civil No. C-85-
19 5169-CAL (N.D. Cal), ("the Settlement Agreement").

20 10. The aid of the Court is invoked under 28 USC §§ 2201 and 2202,
21 authorizing a declaratory judgment.

23

24

25

¹Since March 1, 2003, the Department of Homeland Security is the 26 agency responsible for implementing the Immigration and Nationality Act. See 27 6 U.S.C. §271(b)(5) and 6 U.S.C. § 557.

IV. VENUE

2 11. Venue is proper in the Northern District of California since a
3 substantial part of the events or omissions giving rise to the claim occurred in 4 Northern California.

V. INTRADISTRICT ASSIGNMENT

7 12. This lawsuit should be assigned to the San Jose Division of this
8 Court because a substantial part of the events which give rise to this lawsuit,
9 namely the denial of Plaintiff Hajro's citizenship application and the pending
10 appeal of the citizenship application, occurred in San Jose, California. In 11 addition, Plaintiff Hajro resides in San Jose, California.

VI. REMEDY SOUGHT

14 13. Plaintiff Hajro seeks to have the Court compel Defendants to 15 provide him with a copy of his alien registration file forthwith.

16 14. Plaintiffs seek to have the Court issue an order directing Defendants
17 to amend "Track Three" processing of FOIA requests (see ¶21) to comply with 18 the Settlement Agreement's procedures for expedited processing.

19 15. Plaintiffs seek to have the Court issue an order directing Defendants
20 to amend "Track Three" processing of FOIA requests (see ¶21) to provide for 21 priority processing upon proof that substantial due process rights of the 22 requestor would be impaired by the failure to process immediately.

23 16. Plaintiffs seek a permanent injunction requiring Defendants to:
24 A) provide a copy of a requestor's file within the twenty day time limit
25 mandated in 5 U.S.C. §552(a)(6)(A);
26 B) give written notice if a twenty day extension of time is needed in unusual

1 circumstances as mandated by §552(a)(6)(B);
2 C) establish a procedure to advise a requestor of his/her right and the 3 procedures to appeal the decision if a request for expedited processing is 4 denied.

6 VII. STATEMENT OF FACTS

7 Plaintiff James Mayock

8 17. Plaintiff Mayock has filed several FOIA requests on behalf of his 9 clients seeking copies of their alien registration files. It has taken more than 10 20 days for Defendants to produce the records in these cases.

11 18. Plaintiff Mayock was the plaintiff in Mayock v. I.N.S., 714 F. Supp
12 1558 (N.D. Cal. 1989), rev'd and remanded sub nom. Mayock v. Nelson, 938 F.
13 2d 1006 (9th Cir. 1991).

14 19. As a result of the litigation in that case, Plaintiff Mayock entered into 15 a Settlement Agreement with Defendants and their predecessors².
16 (Exhibit A).

17 20. Under the terms of the Settlement Agreement:

18

19 Expedited Processing for Demonstrated Exceptional Need or 20 Urgency

21 A requestor who demonstrates, consistent with applicable
22 guidances and law, an "exceptional need or urgency", shall have 23 his/her request processed out of turn on an "expedited" basis. The 24 currently applicable guidance...provides that FOIA offices are to 25 grant such treatment when the requestor demonstrates that:

26 ²The Settlement Agreement is published in a law review article: "Freedom
27 Of Information Act Response Deadlines: Bridging The Gap Between Legislative Intent And Economic Reality" by Eric Sinrod, *The American University Law
Review*, Winter 1994 , Volume 43, Number 2, p. 325.

- 1 a. an individual's life or personal safety would be jeopardized by 2 the failure to process a request immediately; or
- 3 b. substantial due process rights of the requestor would be 4 impaired by the failure to process immediately, and the 5 information sought is not otherwise available.

6 Procedures for Expedited Processing

7 A request for expedited processing which demonstrates either of 8 the above circumstances shall be processed immediately.

9 A request which fails to meet the above criteria shall be denied
10 expedited processing and shall be processed on the appropriate
11 track. A requestor must be notified in writing of the decision not to 12 grant the request for expedited treatment, and advised of his/her
13 right and the procedures to appeal the decision...

14 21. Currently, Defendants use a multi track system for responding to 15 FOIA requests, consisting of three tracks:

16 *Track One:*³ Simple requests.

17 *Track Two:*⁴ Complex inquiries that normally necessitate additional search and 18 review time.

19 *Track Three:*⁵ Expedited processing for individuals scheduled for a hearing
20 before an immigration judge.

21 22. Tracks One and Two were implemented on April 29, 1992. (Exhibit B).

22 ³“Track 1 is for less complex requests that can be processed in 20
23 working days or less.” 72 Fed. Reg. 9017 (2/28/07)

24 ⁴“Track 2 is for complex requests that require more than 20 working days
25 to process and that include searching and line-by-line review of numerous 26 pages of information.” 72 Fed. Reg. 9017 (2/28/07)

27 ⁵Referred to as the “Notice To Appear” track. 72 Fed. Reg. 9017(2/28/07)

1 23. "Track Three" was implemented on March 30, 2007. (Exhibit C)

2 24. On January 26, 2008, pursuant to paragraph 10 of the Settlement
3 Agreement, Plaintiff Mayock sent a notification of breach of the Settlement
4 Agreement to the District Director of the USCIS San Francisco District Office.
5 (Exhibit D)

6 25. Plaintiff Mayock has received no reply to this letter.

7 26. On information and belief, FOIA requests are no longer processed
8 by local districts, such as the San Francisco District Office.

9 27. Plaintiff Mayock was not notified by Defendants of this change of 10 procedure under the Settlement Agreement and is unaware of the exact date
11 that this change in practice occurred.

12 28. Currently, all FOIA requests for files of aliens compiled by USCIS
13 are processed in one centralized location at the National Records Center in 14 Lee's Summit, Missouri.

15 29. On January 26, 2008, Plaintiff Mayock also sent a notification of 16 breach to the Director of the National Records Center of the Department of 17 Homeland Security. (Exhibit D)

18 30. Plaintiff Mayock has received no reply to this letter.

19
20 Plaintiff Mirsad Hajro

21 31. Plaintiff Hajro is a beneficiary under the Settlement Agreement.

22 32. Plaintiff Hajro applied for naturalization on November 6, 2003 under
23 8 U.S.C. § 1430(a). (Exhibit E)

24 34. Plaintiff Hajro was interviewed on March 4, 2004 at the USCIS Field
25 Office in San Jose, California.

26 35. Plaintiff Hajro made several inquiries about the status of his

1 citizenship application and was informed each time that his application could
2 not be acted upon because the FBI background name check was pending.

3 36. Plaintiff Hajro filed a Petition For Hearing On Naturalization
4 Application Under 8 U.S.C. §1447(b) in pro per on December 21, 2006.

5 37. The case was assigned to the Honorable James Ware. (Hajro v.
6 Gonzales C 06-7827 JW).

7 38. On or about August 24, 2007, the parties filed a joint "Stipulation
8 For Remand and Dismissal" stating that "the necessary name check and FBI
9 background check investigations have been completed, and that USCIS is now
10 ready to complete the adjudication and issue a decision on the Plaintiff's
11 application for Naturalization."

12 39. Pursuant to this stipulation, Judge Ware dismissed the case
13 without prejudice on August 30, 2007. (Exhibit F)

14 40. Plaintiff Hajro's application for naturalization was denied on October
15 9, 2007 based on alleged evidence in his alien registration file. (Exhibit G)

16 41. Plaintiff Hajro filed an appeal of this decision under 8 U.S.C. §1447(a)
17 on or about November 9, 2007 and requested a hearing on Form N-336.
18 (Exhibit H)

19 42. Plaintiff Hajro filed a FOIA request for a copy of his alien registration
20 file on November 19, 2007. (Exhibit I)

21 43. Plaintiff Hajro specifically requested expedited processing pursuant 22 to the Settlement Agreement.

23 44. Plaintiff Hajro's FOIA request was accompanied by a letter from his 24 lawyer dated November 7, 2007 which explained that Plaintiff Hajro needed a 25 copy of the file to see the alleged evidence upon which the denial was based 26 and prepare his appeal. (Exhibit J)

1 45. Since substantial due process rights of the requestor would be 2 impaired by the failure to process immediately, and the information sought was 3 not otherwise available, the letter argued that this request qualified for 4 expedited processing under the terms of the Settlement Agreement.

5 46. On November 19, 2007 Defendants issued a letter denying Plaintiff
6 Hajro's request for expedited processing because Plaintiff Hajro is not
7 scheduled for a hearing before an immigration judge. (Exhibit K)

8 47. On November 19, 2007 Defendants issued another letter
9 acknowledging receipt of Plaintiff Hajro's FOIA request and placing it on the 10 "complex track". His case number is NRC2007075364. (Exhibit L)

11 48. On information and belief, Plaintiff alleges that the processing time
12 for both "Track One" and "Track Two" cases is currently up to 18 months.
13 (Exhibit M)

14 49. On information and belief, Plaintiff alleges that the vast majority of 15 requests for alien registration files involve less than 100 pages of material in a
16 single file located at a single location at the National Records Center, and do
17 not require consultation with another agency or the search of other offices.

18 50. More than twenty days have passed since the Plaintiff Hajro filed his 19 FOIA request and he has not received a copy of his file.

20 51. Plaintiff Hajro treated this as an adverse determination pursuant to 21 6 C.F.R. §5.6(c) and 5 U.S.C. §552(a)(6)(A).

22 52. Plaintiff Hajro filed an administrative appeal of this denial pursuant 23 to 6 CFR. §5.9(a)(1) on or about December 26, 2007. (Exhibit N)

24 53. More than twenty days have passed since this appeal was filed and 25 no substantive reply has been received. Plaintiff Hajro has treated this as a 26 denial of his appeal pursuant to 5 U.S.C. §552(a)(6)(A).

54. The delay in responding to Plaintiff Hajro's FOIA request is not attributable to Plaintiff Hajro.

55. Plaintiff Hajro has been and will continue to be irreparably harmed because of the unreasonable delay of Defendants in providing the information requested under the Freedom Of Information Act because without a copy of the file, Plaintiff Hajro's attorney cannot prepare his appeal adequately.

56. Plaintiff Hajro has exhausted the applicable administrative remedies with respect to the FOIA request to USCIS.

VIII. FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

57. Defendants' current multi track policy allows expedited processing only in cases for aliens scheduled for a hearing before an immigration judge. (Exhibit O). This violates the Settlement Agreement in that it does not provide a procedure for a requestor to demonstrate that either A) their life or personal safety would be jeopardized by the failure to process a request immediately or B) substantial due process rights would be impaired by the failure to process immediately in cases other than immigration judge hearings.⁶

58. Defendants have undermined the interests protected by the Settlement Agreement by gutting its essential due process protections for aliens who need copies of their files in order to have due process for appeals, motions to reopen, and fair hearings in situations other than hearings before an immigration judge.

⁶Examples of such cases include, but are not limited to: appeals of denials of citizenship under 8 U.S.C. §1447, appeals to the Board of Immigration Appeals under 8 C.F.R. §1003.3, appeals to the Administrative Appeals Office under 8 C.F.R. §103.3, appeals to the Legalization Appeals Office under 8 C.F.R. §245a.2(p), and persons with final orders of deportation filing a motion to reopen or reconsider under 8 C.F.R. §1003.2.

1 59. Plaintiffs contend that Defendants have the right to amend, change,
2 revise, or terminate their practices and policies pursuant to paragraph eleven
3 of the Settlement Agreement as long as they do not violate the essence of the 4 Agreement in terms of providing some sort of mechanism to expedite the 5 requestor's file in cases where a person's life or personal safety is at risk or 6 where substantial due process rights of the requestor would be impaired.

7 60. Plaintiffs allege that both "Track Three" and 6 C.F.R. §5.5(d) violate
8 the Settlement Agreement in that they do not provide a requestor for expedited
9 processing an opportunity to demonstrate that substantial due process rights
10 would be impaired by the failure to process immediately, and the information
11 sought is not otherwise available.

12 61. In this case, the information sought is not otherwise available
13 because there is no discovery in immigration proceedings.

15 IX. SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

16 62. The denial of expedited processing of Plaintiff Hajro's FOIA request 17 violates the Settlement Agreement in that 1) Plaintiff Hajro demonstrated that 18 substantial due process rights (i.e. the right to a fair hearing under 8 U.S.C.
19 1447(a)) would be impaired without access to the evidence used to deny his 20 citizenship application and 2) the denial failed to advise Plaintiff Hajro of his 21 right or any procedures to appeal the decision.

22

23 X. THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

24 63. The failure to provide Plaintiff Hajro with the requested material, i.e.
25 a copy of his alien registration file, within 20 days of his request violates 5
26 U.S.C. §552(a)(6)(A) and 6 C.F.R. §5.6(b).

XI. FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

2 64. The failure to notify Plaintiff Hajro of the "unusual circumstances" 1
3 which prevents the agency from processing his request within the 20 day 2
4 statutory limit and the failure to notify him of the date by which processing of 3
5 his request can be expected to be completed violates 6 C.F.R .§ 5.5(c)(1). 4

6 65. Plaintiff Hajro alleges that Defendants cannot demonstrate "unusual 5
7 circumstances" as defined in 5 U.S.C. §552(a)(6)(B) to extend the twenty day 6
8 statutory time limit in Plaintiff Hajro's case. 7

XII. FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

11 66. Plaintiffs allege that Defendants have a pattern or practice of failing 10
12 to comply with the time requirements set forth in 5 U.S.C. § 552(A), (B), (C). 11

XIII. SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

15 67. Defendants' action in withholding the requested information was 14
16 arbitrary and capricious under 5 U.S.C. §551 et seq., 5 U.S.C. § 555(b), §702, 15
17 §704 and §706, the Administrative Procedure Act. 16

18 68. Defendants have willfully and unreasonably delayed and refused to 17
19 provide Plaintiffs with the information requested both under FOIA and the 18
20 terms of the Settlement Agreement. 19

21 69. Plaintiff Hajro has a right to a copy of the requested documents 20
22 under both the Settlement Agreement and 5 U.S.C. §552(a)(3). 21

23 70. There is no legal basis for Defendants' failure to provide Plaintiff 22
24 Hajro a copy of the requested material in a timely manner. 23

XIV. PRAYER

71. WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs pray this Court:

3 (A) Find that Defendants' multi track policy is in violation of the terms of 4 the Settlement Agreement in that it does not provide priority treatment for 5 cases where the requestor demonstrates that 1) an individual's life or personal 6 safety would be jeopardized by the failure to process a request immediately; or 7 2) substantial due process rights of the requestor would be impaired by the 8 failure to process immediately.

9 (B) Order Defendants to amend "Track Three" to comply with the terms of 10 the Settlement Agreement concerning the procedures for Expedited Processing
11 of FOIA requests so that all aliens (not just those scheduled for a hearing 12 before an immigration judge) who can demonstrate that substantial due 13 process rights would be impaired by the failure to process immediately, are 14 considered for expedited processing.

15 (C) Order Defendants to amend "Track Three" processing of FOIA
16 requests to provide for priority processing upon proof that substantial due
17 process rights of the requestor would be impaired by the failure to process
18 immediately.

19 (D) Find that 6 C.F.R. §5.5(d) violates the Settlement Agreement in that 20 this regulation does not provide a requestor for expedited processing an 21 opportunity to demonstrate that substantial due process rights would be 22 impaired by the failure to process immediately.

23 (E) Find that Defendants are in violation of the Freedom Of Information
24 Act by failing to comply with the time requirements set forth in 5 U.S.C. §
25 552(a)(6)(A), (B), and (C).

26 (F) Issue a permanent injunction requiring Defendants to 1) provide a

1 copy of a requestor's file within the twenty day time limit mandated in 5 U.S.C.
2 §552(a)(6)(A); 2) give written notice if a twenty day extension of time is needed
3 in unusual circumstances as mandated by §552(a)(6)(B); establish a procedure
4 to advise a requestor of his/her right and the procedures to appeal the decision
5 if a request for expedited processing is denied.

6 (G) Find that the failure to provide Plaintiff Hajro with the requested
7 material within 20 days of his request violates 5 U.S.C. §552(a)(6)(A) and 8 6 C.F.R §5.6(b).

9 (H) Find that the failure to provide notification of the "unusual
10 circumstances" which prevents the agency from processing Plaintiff Hajro's 11 request within the 20 day statutory limit and the failure to notify him of the 12 date by which processing of his request can be expected to be completed
13 violates 6 CFR § 5.5(c)(1).

14 (I) Find that Defendants' denial of Plaintiff Hajro's request violated 5
15 U.S.C. §552(a)(6)(E) in that the denial failed to provide for expeditious 16 consideration of an administrative appeal of the denial of expedited processing.

17 (J) Find that the agency action in this case was "arbitrary and 18 capricious".

19 (K) Order Defendants to provide Plaintiff Hajro with a copy of his alien 20 registration file forthwith.

21 (L) Award Plaintiff reasonable attorney's fees and costs of court and

22 (M) Grant such other relief at law and in equity as the Court may deem 23 just and proper.

Civil No. C-85-5169-CAL

SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

Plaintiff, JAMES R. MAYOCK, and defendants, the IMMIGRATION AND NATURALIZATION SERVICE ("I.N.S."), et al. (hereinafter "defendant"), through their undersigned counsel, hereby agree as follows:

1. The parties do hereby resolve, settle and compromise all outstanding claims and issues, including all attorneys' fees and costs, arising from Civil Action No. 85-5169-CAL, United States District Court for the Northern District of California ("the action").
2. This Settlement Agreement does not constitute an admission by the defendant that defendant, or any of its employees, has violated any law or statute as alleged in the complaint filed by plaintiff in the action. Defendant specifically disclaims that it has engaged in any unlawful pattern and practice either by failing to produce certain categories of Freedom of Information Act ("FOIA"), 5 U.S.C. § 552, information or by failing to respond timely to requests as required by the FOIA.
3. This Settlement Agreement does not constitute an admission by plaintiff that its allegations that defendant engaged in a pattern and practice of violating various FOIA requirements lack merit. Plaintiff also does not subscribe to defendant's legal interpretation of 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(6)(C) and the applicable case law as specifically set forth in Attachment A to this Settlement Agreement. Plaintiff otherwise does not necessarily agree that the electronic databases identified on page 2 of Attachment B to this Settlement Agreement constitute all relevant electronic databases to be searched.

4. Defendant agrees to establish a national Policy on Priority for Processing Freedom of Information Act/Privacy Act ("FOIA/PA") Requests, which policy shall be disseminated to all Regional Record Managers, conspicuously posted in all I.N.S. district offices and a copy mailed to plaintiff's counsel, Eric J. Sinrod, and to Lory Rosenberg, American Immigration Lawyers Foundation, Legal Action Center in Washington, D.C. within two weeks of the execution of this Settlement Agreement. The terms of that national policy shall be as set forth in Attachment A to this Settlement Agreement.

5. Defendant further agrees that the San Francisco District Office ("SFDO") will continue its present policies and procedures for handling FOIA/PA requests and that the SFDO District Director shall issue a policy statement setting forth the terms of that present SFDO policy. That policy shall be conspicuously posted at the SFDO and a copy mailed to plaintiff's counsel, Eric J. Sinrod, and to Lory Rosenberg, American Immigration Lawyers Foundation, Legal Action Center in Washington, D.C. within two weeks of the execution of this Settlement Agreement. The terms of that SFDO policy statement shall be as set forth in Attachment B to this Settlement Agreement.

6. Defendant further agrees to provide to plaintiff's counsel, Eric J. plaintiff the lump sum amount of $10,000.00, which amount shall be paid to Plaintiff's attorney, Eric J. Sinrod, and to Ms. Rosenberg, Legal Action Center, within fifteen days of the execution of this Settlement Agreement.

Plaintiff shall be liable for Plaintiff's attorney's fees and costs that Plaintiff's attorney incurs in the litigation of this case in any capacity. No deductions of any type shall be taken from this lump sum payment, which defendant shall tender to plaintiff by means of a check or electronic transfer payable jointly to James R. Mayock and Hancock, Rothert & Bunshoft. Plaintiff and/or his counsel are liable for payment of all applicable taxes and other deductions from this amount. If this payment is not tendered before June 26, 1992, plaintiff shall retain the right to request the district court to postpone dismissal provided for in the District Court's Order of Dismissal, dated April 28, 1992, but only until such time as plaintiff receives such payment.

8. In exchange for the consideration to be provided by defendant, as set forth above, plaintiff forever waives and releases all claims and causes of action that plaintiff has alleged or could have alleged against the defendant and all I.N.S. employees in this litigation. Plaintiff reserves the right to bring a subsequent action should he believe that an I.N.S. pattern and practice of failing to comply with FOIA has occurred after this litigation has concluded.

9. Plaintiff further agrees not to challenge the District Court's Order of Dismissal, dated April 28, 1992, within the 60 day time period provided in that Order, provided that defendant fulfills all of its obligations set forth in paragraphs 4, 5, 6 and 7, above. Plaintiff and defendant further agree voluntarily to dismiss their respective attorneys' fees appeals in the United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit, appeal numbers 90-16681 and 90-16725 with prejudice, by simultaneously executing this Settlement Agreement and the stipulation of dismissal attached hereto as Attachment C and immediately filing the executed stipulation of dismissal with the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals.

10. The parties agree that should plaintiff believe there has been any breach of this Settlement Agreement, he shall provide the SFDO District Director with notice in writing of any such perceived breach. The SFDO shall, within two weeks of the date of receipt of that notice, respond in writing to the substance of that claim and shall undertake a good faith effort to resolve plaintiff's concerns. The SFDO would then have an additional two weeks to meet with and/or make a good faith effort to resolve plaintiff's claim. During the four weeks following the receipt of plaintiff's written notice at the SFDO, plaintiff shall not institute any pattern and practice lawsuit in district court concerning a perceived breach of the Settlement Agreement.

At the end of that four week period, however, plaintiff shall be free to seek relief in district court for any perceived breach of the Settlement Agreement that he believes have not been corrected by the SFDO.

11. Defendant retains the right to amend, change, revise, or terminate any practice or policy of concern herein. Plaintiff, in the event of any such amendment, change, revision, or termination by defendant of any practice or policy of concern herein, shall retain the right to institute a new action challenging any such amendment, change, revision or termination and any of its consequences.

12. The parties acknowledge that they enter into this agreement freely and voluntarily and that this agreement is intended by the parties to be the full and final settlement of the matters encompassed herein; and there are no terms and conditions of settlement not set forth herein.

PRIORITY

The purpose of this memo is to establish a priority for processing FOIA/PA requests and to set forth the procedures to be followed when acting on requests that are received.

The FOIA, 5 U.S.C. § 552, requires agencies to determine whether to release a record within 10 working days. If an agency fails to do so, it may treat the failure as an automatic denial and file suit. 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(4)(B). The agency may extend the 10 working day period for "good cause" as follows:

(i) the need to search for records in field facilities or other locations outside the agency's office processing the request.

(ii) the need to search voluminous amount of records demanded in a single request.

(iii) the need for consultation with other agencies or with the public, in order to determine the proper components of the agency's response to the request.

Those INS FOIA/PA requests that require extension of the 10 working day period should be referred to the Office of General Counsel for review. The leading case on this point is United States v. U.S. Attorneys' Office, Prosecuting Force, 547 F.2d 621 (D.C. Cir. 1976). The volume of requests beyond the anticipated constitutes a good cause for processing these requests.

PRIORITY PROCESSING PROGRAM

The purpose of this memorandum is to set policy for establishing priority for processing Freedom of Information Act/Privacy Act ("FOIA/PA") requests and the procedures to be used by INS offices when acting on requests that ask for "expedited processing."

The FOIA, 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(6)(A), requires federal agencies to determine whether to release requested documents within 10 working days. If an agency fails to comply with this requirement, the requester may treat the failure as an exhaustion of administrative remedies and file suit. 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(6)(B) allows this period to be extended for an additional 10 working days in the event of "unusual circumstances" as follows:

- (i) the need to search for and collect the requested records from field facilities or other establishments that are separate from the office processing the request;
- (ii) the need to search for, collect, and appropriately examine a voluminous amount of separate and distinct records which are demanded in a single request; or
- (iii) the need for consultation, which shall be conducted with all practicable speed, with another agency having a substantial interest in the determination of the request or among two or more components of the agency having substantial subject matter interest therein.

Those INS FOIA/PA offices which have such a backlog that the extension authorized in these unusual circumstances would be irrelevant should rely on the language of 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(6)(C). The leading case on this provision is Open American v. Watergate Special Prosecuting Force, 547 F.2d 605 (D.C. Cir. 1976), which provides that a volume of requests beyond that which an agency could reasonably have anticipated constitutes "exceptional circumstances," and that processing these requests on a "first-in, first-out" basis satisfies the requirement that an agency exercise due diligence in dealing with this backlog.

In general, each INS FOIA/PA office must adopt a first-in, first-out (FIFO) processing policy as its basic guideline in determining the order in which it processes requests. If strict FIFO processing of all requests regardless of the volume of records requested would cause some requesters with simple requests to wait for extraordinary periods of time while a limited number requesters with exceptionally complex requests are served, individual offices may adopt a multi-track system as follows:

Track I - Simple Requests

- Require five days or less to process.
- Request a limited number of documents.
- Involve minimal review for claims exemptions.

Simple requests are those which require five days or less to process, including requests for only one or two specific documents that are easily accessed and which, by their nature would not normally be exempt from the requester (e.g., request for a copy of one's own birth certificate or naturalization certificate).

Track 2 - Complex Requests

- Require more than five days to locate, review and prepare for disclosure.
- Request more than a limited number of documents.
- Involve more than a minimal review for claims exemption.

Complex requests are those which it is estimated that the records sought in the request will take more than five days to locate, review and prepare the requested records for disclosure (e.g. files requiring line-by-line review of numerous pages of personal information, classified files requiring review for national security implications, investigative files, particularly those that are of current or recent investigations, that require careful personnel; and sensitive internal decision-making process).

Simultaneous Two-Track FIFO

Under this two-track system simple requests are processed ahead of more complex ones. This procedure, however, will be used as long as the FIFO approach will be good faith effort is made to process Track 1 over Track 2.

Expedited Processing for Demands

A requester who demonstrates to the agency, under the law, an "exceptional need" for prompt processing, may be processed out of turn on a case-by-case basis, in accordance with applicable guidance, set forth in the FOIA UPDATE, Summer 1983. The agency may not deny such treatment when the requester demonstrates an "exceptional need."

- a. an individual's life or property is threatened by the failure to process a request in a timely manner.
- b. substantial due process rights of the requester are impaired by the failure to process a request in a timely manner and the information sought is necessary to the requester's defense.

Procedures for Expedited Processing

A request for expedited processing may be made in the above circumstances shall be processed in a timely manner.

A request which fails to meet the requirements for expedited processing and shall be denied. A requester must be notified in writing of the request for expedited processing and the procedures to appeal the denial. The notification shall be enclosed.

Simultaneous Two-Track FIFO Processing

Under this two-track system some simple requests will be processed ahead of more complex ones which may have been received earlier. This procedure, however, will not negate a claim of due diligence as long as the FIFO approach within each track is maintained, and a good faith effort is made to process all requests as expeditiously as possible. FOIA offices may not, however, devote all of their resources to processing Track 1 over Track 2, or vice-versa.

Expedited Processing for Demonstrated Exceptional Need or Urgency

A requester who demonstrates, consistent with applicable guidances and law, an "exceptional need or urgency", shall have his/her request processed out of turn on an "expedited" basis. The currently applicable guidance, set forth in the Attached Department of Justice FOIA UPDATE, Summer 1983, provides that FOIA offices are to grant such treatment when the requester demonstrates that:

- a. an individual's life or personal safety would be jeopardized by the failure to process a request immediately; or
- b. substantial due process rights of the requester would be impaired by the failure to process immediately, and the information sought is not otherwise available.

Procedures for Expedited Processing

A request for expedited processing which demonstrates either of the above circumstances shall be processed immediately.

A request which fails to meet the above criteria shall be denied expedited processing and shall be processed on the appropriate track. A requester must be notified in writing of the decision not to grant the request for expedited treatment, and advised of his/her right and the procedures to appeal the decision. Sample letters for this notification are enclosed.

Policies & Procedures for Handling FOIA Requests

The purpose of this memorandum is to set forth the San Francisco District Office's ("SFDO's") policies and procedures for handling Freedom of Information Act ("FOIA") requests. All SFDO FOIA personnel shall adhere to the policies and procedures set forth below in responding to a FOIA request.

I. Receipt and Logging of Requests

A. Mailed Requests

1. The FOIA unit will promptly retrieve its mail each time the mail is delivered and date stamp all requests with that day's date.
2. After date stamping the request, the request will be entered into the FOIA computer tracking system in the appropriate category.
3. An acknowledgement of receipt of the FOIA request will be mailed to the requester within two days of the receipt of the request.

B. Hand Delivered Requests

1. All requests that are hand-delivered will be date stamped with that day's date promptly upon receipt.
2. After date stamping the request, the request will be entered into the FOIA computer tracking system in the appropriate category.
3. An acknowledgement of receipt of the FOIA request will be mailed to the requester within two days of the date the request is received if not handed to the requester while he is still in the office.

II. Screening Requests and Obtaining Alien File

- A. The location of the Alien File from which information has been requested will be determined promptly.
- B. If the Alien File is located in another files control office (FCO):
 - 1. The FOIA request will be immediately forwarded to that office.
 - 2. The requester will be mailed a notice of the request's transfer to another office within two days of the date the transfer is made.
 - 3. If the request is for "all files", a search of electronic data bases will be made and releasable information located will be sent to the requester with the notice of transfer.
- C. If the Alien File is located in the Immigration Card Facility, a request for the file will be made immediately. The request will then be treated as if this office were the original FCO.
- D. If the Alien File is located in this District, it will be obtained promptly so that work can begin.

III. Working the Request

- A. The Alien File will be received and appropriate deletions made and identified in accordance with statutes, regulations and established procedures.
- B. The following electronic databases will be searched by name and date of birth of the subject of the request as necessary for each request.
 - 1. Central Index System (CIS)

V. Extension of Time

- A. All SFDO FOIA personnel shall comply with the time requirements set forth in 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(6)(A), (B), and (C).
- B. An extension of time under 5 U.S.C § 552(a)(6)(B) for a response to the requester can be used only in the following circumstances:
 - 1. Some or all of the requested records/ information must be obtained from another office.
 - 2. The volume of records to be reviewed is unusually large.
 - 3. Other federal government agencies of Department of Justice component must be consulted.
- C. If an extension of time is appropriate under 5 U.S.C § 552(a)(6)(B), a letter of explanation will be sent promptly to the requester explaining the reason for the delay and setting a new response date.
- D. Where an extension of time pursuant to 5 U.S.C § 552(a)(6)(B) is determined to be appropriate, the final response shall be within 20 working days of the original request date.

V. Information Disclosure

- A. Entire Page Withhold
 - 1. When an entire page of a file is withheld from disclosure to a FOIA requester, the specific subject matter of the withheld sheet need not be identified.

(11)

2. When an entire page of a file is withheld, however, the following information will be released in lieu of the page itself:

- a. The "in lieu of" page will be identified in its upper right hand corner with the page number of the page withheld, e.g. L-7, R-29, etc.
- b. "Entire Page" will then be placed immediately beneath the page number.
- c. Centered in the upper half of the "in lieu of" page will be the U.S.C. citation that exempts from disclosure the withheld page.
- d. Centered in the lower half of the "in lieu of" page will be the identification of the withheld page by type, form number and date, as applicable, e.g. Attorneys' Worksheet, 1/23/89 or Investigator's Worksheet, SF-10, 2/14/88.

B. Less Than Entire Page Withheld

- 1. When less than an entire page is withheld, a numerical citation to the statutory section relied upon for exemption from disclosure will be placed adjacent to redacted information.
- 2. The form number, date, and any information which generally describes the type of form will ordinarily not be redacted, in order to assist the requestor in making a decision as to whether or not to appeal the decision to exempt information from disclosure.

VI. Review and Distribution of Completed Request

- A. After the requested records and information have been gathered, a cover letter will be prepared indicating what types of documents are being withheld and correlating that with the exemption(s) relied upon.

5. INS Extends Proyecto San Pablo Filing Deadline to July 15

In 69 Interpreter Releases 260, 281 (Mar. 2, 1992), we reproduced a February 7, 1992 INS cable implementing a federal court order in Proyecto San Pablo v. INS, No. 89-456-TUC (D. Ariz. Jan. 29, 1992). In that case the court invalidated certain INS regulations and procedures that denied legalization to certain aliens who were deemed to lack continuous residence because of an absence from the U.S. due to deportation.¹ In January 1992 U.S. District Judge William D. Browning stayed previous orders for relief, but ordered the INS to grant work authorization to class members.²

Judge Browning ordered the INS to send to potential class members copies of the court's opinion along with an application form for them to return to an INS Service Center.³ Individuals contacted then assume the responsibility of pursuing work authorization. Regional INS offices were to accept all work authorization applications received from such individuals during a 90-day period beginning March 16, 1992 and ending June 15, 1992. Upon receiving a response from an alien, the INS must also examine the alien's legalization file to determine if he or she is a class member.

The INS has now agreed to extend the filing deadline by one month, to July 15, 1992. The INS announced the extension in a May 28, 1992 letter from INS attorney Ellen Sue Shapiro to Seattle, Washington attorney Robert H. Gibbs, one of plaintiffs' counsel.⁴ Ms. Shapiro explained that the Service is extending the deadline because it "is anxious for all class members to receive interim relief, and is concerned by your representations that not all legitimately entitled aliens have done so." Ms. Shapiro added, however, that the INS will not send out another mailing to aliens informing them of the extension.

1. See 69 Interpreter Releases 129 (Jan. 27, 1992); 68 Interpreter Releases 1231 (Sept. 23, 1991).

2. See 69 Interpreter Releases 161 (Feb. 3, 1992).

3. The form is reproduced in 69 Interpreter Releases 281 (Mar. 2, 1992).

4. The 3-page INS letter is available through the IR/AILA joint reprint service (reprint number IR-03-0792). The cost is $2.30 by mail, plus $3.00 postage/handling per mail order (not per item); $10.30 by fax. To order, call AILA at (202-371-9377) or fax (credit cards only; 202-371-9449).

Ms. Shapiro's letter makes two other noteworthy points. First, the letter makes clear that the INS will accept copies of the application form, and not just the official form mailed by the Service, as long as the copy includes the alien's A-number. Second, the letter clarifies that any class members who did not receive the INS' official notice should immediately contact the plaintiffs' counsel, who are listed in the Service's February 7, 1992 wire.

6. FOIA Case Against INS Finally Settled

After seven years of litigation, the INS has settled an important Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) case. Mayock v. INS, Civ. No. C-85-5169-CAL (N.D. Cal. May 22, 1992). The settlement will effect nationwide changes in INS FOIA procedures, and may help prevent deportation of aliens to countries where they would face persecution and war.

The case focused on the INS' failure to respond to more than 100 information requests within the 10-day limit mandated by the FOIA. The suit charged that the INS routinely took months—in some cases years—to respond to the requests, often long after the aliens had already been deported. According to the suit, timely access to the requested information might have prevented the deportations.

Under the settlement, the INS has agreed to establish a national Policy on Priority for Processing Freedom of Information Act/Privacy Act Requests within two weeks of the date of the settlement. The new policy should be in place by early June 1992.

The new policy permits INS FOIA offices to continue to exceed FOIA's time limits when the office has a great backlog of requests, as now exist in most INS FOIA offices. The new policy also does not bind the INS to take any affirmative efforts to reduce FOIA backlogs. However, the new policy mandates a new multi-track processing system that should significantly expedite the processing of many FOIA requests. "Simple" requests (defined as those requiring five days or less to process, requesting a limited number of documents, and involving minimal review for exemptions from FOIA's disclosure requirements) will be processed on a "first-in, first-out" (FIFO) basis. "Complex" requests will be separately processed on a FIFO basis. Previously, all requests were lumped in together and processed on a FIFO basis. In addition, the new policy provides that from now on, the INS will process FOIA requests that show "exceptional need or urgency" on an immediate basis.

The settlement also incorporates a five-page list of policies and procedures for handling FOIA requests at the INS' San Francisco office. Among other things, that office will now be required to follow FOIA's time requirements. The INS also agreed to pay the plaintiffs $250,000 to cover attorney's fees and costs.

The plaintiffs were represented by San Francisco attorneys Eric J. Sinrod and James R. Mayock. "We established a priority program which benefits FOIA requesters across the nation," said Mr. Sinrod. "We also cleaned up all the FOIA practices of the San Francisco INS office," he added. Mr. Mayock commented that "immigrants will now get a fair shake in deportation cases because of timely and full disclosure of information."

According to Mr. Sinrod, the INS had argued that it was exempt from FOIA's time requirements because the agency suffered from a "chronic" backlog of FOIA requests and therefore only was required to respond on a FIFO basis. In June 1989, U.S. District Judge Charles A. Legge disagreed with the INS and ruled in favor of the plaintiffs, holding that the INS nationally could not avoid the 10-day rule simply by claiming a routine backlog of FOIA requests, and that the INS must give priority attention to requests for information needed in exclusion or deportation hearings. He also held that the San Francisco INS office had to come into strict compliance with FOIA's 10-day rule.¹

In July 1991 the Ninth Circuit reversed and remanded Judge Legge's decision, holding that Judge Legge needed to consider additional facts before reaching a final judgment. Mayock v. Nelson, 938 F.2d 1006 (9th Cir. 1991), rev'd Mayock v. INS, 714 F. Supp. 1558 (N.D. Cal. 1989).² After months of further negotiations, the case was settled before Judge Legge reached a final judgment.

"After seven years of litigation, we convinced the INS that we would take this case to the U.S. Supreme Court, if necessary," Mr. Sinrod stated. "I believe that the INS realized that it would be prudent to settle this case on fair terms." □

7. INS Issues New Guidelines on Incomplete Asylum Applications

INS headquarters has developed new guidelines on returning incomplete applications to asylum applicants. A May 28, 1992 memorandum signed by INS Deputy Commissioner Ricardo Inzunza outlines the definition of a complete asylum application, based on the regulations and the I-589 asylum application. The memo, with attachments, is reproduced in Appendix II of this Release.

The memo notes that 8 CFR § 208.3 defines the "form of application" required from asylum applicants. Under that regulation, the following documents compose a complete asylum application: (1) Form I-589, in quadruplicate, and an additional copy for each family member; (2) Form G-327A, biographic information, for each person over 14 years old; (3) Form FD-258 fingerprint card for each person over 14; (4) two photographs for each person; (5) supporting documentation; and (6) evidence of claimed relationship for all family members. In addition, applicants may submit Form I-765 applications for work authorization.

The memo adds that the instructions on the I-589 reiterate this information and state documentary requirements for applicants. An additional copy of the application is required for each dependent, and evidence of relationships must be included. Any documents in a foreign language must be accompanied by an English translation.

The memo also states that additional guidelines on what constitutes a "substantially incomplete" application may be issued at a later date. Until that time, the memo instructs INS offices not to return an application because it appears to be "substantially incomplete."

Attachment 1 to the memo defines a complete I-589 package, delineating the forms and documents that must be included. "Applications which are lacking the necessary documents must be returned as incomplete," the memo states, in an apparent inconsistency.

Attachment 2 defines the "variables" that must be completed on each form for INS offices to accept an application and consider it filed. Since an I-589 cannot be entered into the system without certain essential variables, the memo continues, these must be included on at least one of the forms in the asylum

69 INTERPRETER RELEASES

Finally, the memorandum notes that a requester who demonstrates an "exceptional need or urgency" is to have his or her request processed out of turn on an expedited basis. In attached guidelines, the Justice Department mandates that a requester for expedited treatment demonstrate either that a person's life or safety is threatened, or that the requester's due process rights would be impaired. Mr. Martinez' memo also includes model responses to requesters for such expedited processing. □

5. INS Finalizes National Policy for Responding to FOIA Requests

In 69 Interpreter Releases 707 (June 8, 1992) we reported on a settlement in Mayock v. INS, Civ. No. C-85-5169-CAL (N.D. Cal. May 22, 1992), which challenged the INS' procedures for responding to requests under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA). As part of the settlement, the Service agreed to establish a national policy for responding to FOIA requests.

The INS has now finalized those procedures in a memorandum to the field issued by Assistant Commissioner for Records System Robert L. Martinez. The memo, dated April 29, 1992, is reproduced in Appendix V of this Release.

The memo notes that the FOIA, 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(6)(A), requires federal agencies to determine whether to release requested records within 10 working days. If an agency fails to comply, the requester may treat the failure as an exhaustion of remedies and file suit. The statute also allows this period to be extended for an additional 10 days in the event of "unusual circumstances." The memo describes three such circumstances.

Those INS offices that have such a backlog that the authorized extension would be irrelevant may rely on Open America v. Watergate Special Prosecution Force, 547 F.2d 605 (D.C. Cir. 1976), which held that a volume of requests beyond that which an agency could reasonably have anticipated constitutes "exceptional circumstances," and that processing these requests on a "first-in, first-out" basis satisfies the requirement that an agency exercise due diligence.

In general, each office should adopt a first-in, first-out processing policy, Mr. Martinez' memo states. If strict adherence to this would cause some requesters with simple requests (five days or less to process) to wait for extraordinary periods of time while a limited number of complex requests (more than five days) are processed, offices may adopt a "multi-track" system. Under this system, some simple requests would be processed ahead of complex cases. "This procedure, however, will not negate a claim of due diligence, as long as a [first-in, first-out] approach within each track is maintained, and a good faith effort is made to process all requests as expeditiously as possible," Mr. Martinez states.

6. INS General Counsel Opinion Discusses Immigration of Adopted Siblings

When is a sibling not a sibling? When his or her fellow sibling is adopted by another set of parents. That seems to be the conclusion for immigration purposes of a June 21, 1990 legal opinion issued by then-INS General Counsel William P. Cook. The opinion concluded that if the INS grants an immigration benefit based on the relationship between an adopted person and his or her adoptive parent, another individual born to the adopted child's natural parents does not qualify for immigrant classification as the adopted person's brother or sister.

The legal opinion is reproduced in Appendix VI of this Release. The opinion discussed the following fact situation, presented by the State Department's Visa Office: Two aliens are born to common parents. One of the aliens is later adopted by others, and obtains immigrant status based on the adoptive relationship. The adopted alien eventually becomes a U.S. citizen. The adopted alien then seeks to classify the other alien as his sibling under the old fifth preference (now the family fourth preference).

Based on these facts, the opinion discussed the following question: What effect does adoption have for purposes of the immigration laws, on the relationship between two persons born to common parents?

The legal opinion first noted that an adopted child is considered the child of his or her adoptive parents, not his or her natural parents. Citing Matter of Lum 11 I&N Dec. 55 (BIA 1964), the opinion held that an adopted person can only be considered the child of his or her natural parents if the INS granted no immigration benefits based on the adoptive relationship and granting benefits in the future is no longer possible (emphasis provided).

Memorandum

CO 1491-P

Subject: Policy on Priority for Processing
FOIA/PA Requests

Date

4/29/92

To: Regional Records Managers

From: Records Systems
Division (HQRSR)

The purpose of this memorandum is to set the policy for establishing priority for processing Freedom of Information Act and Privacy Act (FOIA/PA) requests and the procedures to be used by IRS offices when acting on requests that ask for "expedited processing."

The FOIA, 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(6)(A), requires federal agencies to determine whether to release requested records within 10 working days. If an agency fails to comply with this requirement, the requester may treat the failure as an exhaustion of administrative remedies and file suit. 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(6)(B) allows this period to be extended for an additional 10 working days in the event of "unusual circumstances" as follows:

- (i) the need to search for and collect the requested records from field facilities or other establishments that are separate from the office processing the request;
- (ii) the need to search for, collect, and appropriately examine a voluminous amount of separate and distinct records which are demanded in a single request, or
- (iii) the need for consultation, which shall be conducted with all practicable speed, with another agency having a substantial interest in the determination of the request or among two or more components of the agency having substantial subject matter interest therein.

Those IRS FOIA/PA offices which have such a backlog that the extension authorized in these unusual circumstances would be irrelevant should rely on the language of 5 U.S.C. 552(a)(6)(C). The leading case on this provision is, Open America v. Watergate Special Prosecution Force, 547 F.2d 608 (D.C. Cir. 1976), which provides that a volume of requests beyond that which an agency could reasonably have anticipated constitutes "exceptional circumstances," and that processing these requests on a "first-in, first-out" basis satisfies the requirement that the agency exercise due diligence in dealing with this backlog.

Regional Records Managers

In general, each INS FOIA/PA office must adopt a first-in, first-out (FIFO) processing policy as its basic guideline in determining the order in which it is going to process requests. If strict FIFO processing of all requests, regardless of the volume of records requested, would cause some requesters with simple requests to wait for extraordinary periods of time while a limited number of requesters with exceptionally complex requests are served, individual offices may adopt a multi-track system as follows:

Track 1 - Simple Requests

Simple requests are those which require a brief time (five days or less) to process (e.g., they request a limited number of documents, and involve minimal review for exemption claims). They include requests for only one or two specific documents that are easily accessed and which, by their nature, would not normally be exempt from the requester (e.g., request for a copy of one's own birth certificate or naturalization certificate).

Track 2 - Complex Requests

Complex requests are those which require more than five days to locate, review and prepare for disclosure (e.g., they request more than a limited number of documents, and involve more than a minimal review for exemption claims). Such requests include files requiring line-by-line review of numerous pages of personal information, classified files requiring review for national security implications, investigative files, particularly those that are of current or recent investigations, that require careful coordination with investigative personnel, and sensitive internal memoranda that are part of the decision making process.

Simultaneous Two-Track FIFO Processing

Under this two-track system some simple requests will be processed ahead of more complex ones which may have been received earlier. This procedure, however, will not negate a claim of due diligence as long as a FIFO approach within each track is maintained, and a good faith effort is made to process all requests as expeditiously as possible. FOIA/PA offices may not, however, devote all of their resources to processing Track 1 over Track 2, or vice-versa.

Expedited Processing for Demonstrated Exceptional Need or Urgency

A requester who demonstrates an "exceptional need or urgency" shall have his/her request processed out of turn on an "expedited" basis. In the attached copy of FOIA UPDATE Summer of 1983, the Department of Justice provided guidance as to what a requester must show to require the granting of a request for expedited treatment. FOIA/PA offices are to grant such treatment when the requester demonstrates that:

- a. an individual's life or personal safety would be jeopardized by the failure to process a request immediately; or
- b. substantial due process rights of the requester would be impaired by the failure to process immediately, and the information sought is not otherwise available.

Procedures for Expedited Processing

A request for expedited processing which demonstrates either of the above circumstances shall be processed immediately.

A request which fails to meet the above criteria shall be denied expedited processing and shall be processed on the appropriate track. A requester must be notified in writing of the decision not to grant the request for expedited treatment, and advised of his/her right and the procedures to appeal the decision. Sample letters for this notification are enclosed.

Please disseminate this policy to your FOIA/PA Officers and insure that each is fully aware of these requirements. This rescinds HQINF memorandum 1491-P, dated March 1980, same subject. Any questions concerning this policy should be directed to Mildred Carter, FOIA/PA Specialist, or Russell Powell, Chief, FOIA/PA Section, on (202) 514-1722.

Subject: Expedited Treatment

Dear Mr. Doe:

Your request was received in this office on 00/00/00, seeking expedited treatment of your request for access to information from INS records.

On the basis of the information you provided, we have determined that expedited processing of your request is not warranted. Standards established by the Department of Justice regarding expedited processing are very strict (copy attached) and permit expedited treatment only when the requester demonstrates that:

- a. an individual's life or personal safety would be jeopardized by the failure to process a request immediately; or
- b. substantial due process rights of the requester would be impaired by the failure to process immediately, and the information sought is not otherwise available.

In the event you can demonstrate any further showing as to the nature and degree of the loss that will be suffered if processing is not expedited, or any such reliance by the subject on the availability of INS information alone will prevent impairment of due process rights, submit this additional information to INS for reconsideration.

You may choose to appeal my decision in this matter by writing to the Attorney General, Office of Information and Privacy, United States Department of Justice, Room 7238 Main Justice Building, 10th Street and Constitution Avenue, N. W., Washington D.C. 20530, within 30 days of receipt of this letter. Your letter should reference the control number and the letter and envelope should be clearly marked: "FREEDOM OF INFORMATION APPEAL".

Sincerely,

Mr. John Doe

Subject: Expedited Treatment

Dear Mr. Doe:

Your request was received in this office on 00/00/00, seeking expedited treatment of your request for access to information from INS records.

On the basis of the information you provided, we have determined that expedited processing of your request is warranted and will therefore begin processing this request in the near future.

Sincerely,

FOIA UPDATE

OIP Guidance

When to Expedite FOIA Requests

An issue bound to be confronted sooner or later by all federal agencies is whether to give certain requesters expedited treatment under the Freedom of Information Act. Because the granting of a request for expedited treatment works to the direct disadvantage of other FOIA requesters, the merits of such requests should be assessed carefully.

The FOIA requires that federal agencies determine whether to release requested records within 10 working days, but this period may be extended for an additional 10 working days whenever any of three subsequently defined "unusual circumstances" exist. 3 U.S.C. § 552(a)(6)(B). Many agencies are often unable to meet these deadlines due to such factors as the number of requests received, the volume of records sought, decentralized recordkeeping procedures, and limitations on resources—often coupled with the need for a line-by-line review of sensitive documents. The U.S. Court of Appeals for the D.C. Circuit has recognized this problem and has specifically approved the equitable practice of handling requests on a "first-in, first-out" basis. See Open America v. Watergate Special Prosecution Force, 547 F.2d 605, 614-16 (D.C. Cir. 1976), citing 3 U.S.C. § 552(a)(6)(C).

At the same time, however, the D.C. Circuit in Open America recognized that some FOIA requests necessarily involve a far greater degree of urgency than others and that when a requester can show "exceptional need or urgency," his request should be processed out of turn. 547 F.2d at 616. The Open America decision did not specify any particular circumstances which might constitute "exceptional need or urgency," so decisions on whether to grant expedited treatment have been left for agency FOIA officers to make on a case-by-case basis. Several years of administrative practice in this area, though, together with at least some specific judicial precedents, have served to develop the following guidelines and considerations.

Threat to Life or Safety. First, FOIA processing should be expedited whenever it is demonstrated that an individual's life or personal safety would be jeopardized by the failure to process a request immediately. Of the hundred of court decisions to have ordered expedited processing, almost all have fallen into this category. See, e.g., Ermer v. FBI, 443 F. Supp. 1349, 1353 (S.D. Cal. 1978) (plaintiff obtained expedited treatment after lack of information exposed her to harm by organized crime figures); 472 F.2d 1203 (1st Cir. 1973); Clayton v. Kelley, 422 F. Supp. 10, 31 (D.D.C. 1976) (plaintiff faced multiple criminal charges carrying possible death penalty in state court). At the administrative level, the Department of Justice has expedited a request to facilitate disclosure of medical information about a child's father vital to the child's emergency medical treatment. Another agency agreed to process immediately a request from the parents of a young woman believed to be facing a serious threat to her life in the custody of a cult. To be sure, FOIA requests involving substantiated "life-or-death" matters are rare, but no more compelling justification can exist for special FOIA treatment.

Loss of Substantial Due Process Rights

As a general rule, a request also should be expedited if it is shown that substantial due process rights of the requester would be impaired by the failure to process immediately and that the information sought is not otherwise available. Indeed, the practices of many federal agencies reflect such concern for the due process rights of requesters. At the Justice Department's Drug Enforcement Administration, for example, the portion of a drug offender's file that is relevant to an upcoming parole hearing is routinely processed for release out of turn under the FOIA. Similarly, other agencies regularly expedite FOIA requests for information needed in concurrent award protests so that filing deadlines can be met.

It is not sufficient, however, for a requester merely to allege that requested records are "needed" in connection with some judicial or administrative proceeding; rather, the immediate use of the FOIA must be shown to be critical to the preservation of a substantial right. See, Afrodis v. DEA, 3 GDS 981-365 at 81,953 (D.D.C. 1981) ("A pending civil suit does not generally qualify a FOIA demand for expedited processing."); *Indeed, in *Mitsubishi Electric Corp. v. Department of Justice, 39 Ad.L.Rep.2d (P&F) 1131, 1140-42 (D.D.C. 1976), the court pointedly refused to order expedited processing where a requester had not availed himself of existing civil discovery mechanisms for obtaining the records sought. In connection with criminal proceedings, weak "due process" claims have likewise been found inadequate. See, e.g., Concilio v. DEA, 2 GDS 1061 at 81,069 (D.D.C. 1980) (use of FOIA as discovery tool to aid standard post-judgment attack on criminal conviction held insufficient); Auter v. United States Department of Justice, 3 GDS 983-227 (D.D.C. 1981) (need for documents for preparation as witness in criminal trial held insufficient).

Other Considerations

Beyond these two narrow categories, it is unclear to what extent agencies have the discretion to grant requests for expedited treatment under any other circumstances. Only one judicial decision has ventured beyond these categories—Schreier v. IRS, 3 GDS 982-515 at 81,302-03 (D.D.C. 1982), where a court somewhat perfunctorily ordered immediate disclosure of a record related to imminent action by Congress. Moreover, agencies should not forget the interests of all requesters in having their requests treated equitably, as well as the public interest in the integrity of FOIA processing. See Mitsubishi Electric Corp. v. Department of Justice, supra 39 Ad.L.Rep.2d (P&F) at 1142 (Expedited processing, "if granted, will adversely impact upon the conflicting interests of numerous individuals whose requests and appeals were filed (earlier)."). Because a decision to take a FOIA request out of turn necessarily entails further delay for other requests waiting patiently in line, simple fairness demands that it be made only upon careful scrutiny of truly exceptional circumstances.

When to Expedite FOIA Requests

An issue bound to be confronted sooner or later by all federal agencies is whether to give certain requesters expedited treatment under the Freedom of Information Act. Because the granting of a request for expedition necessarily works to the direct disadvantage of other FOIA requesters, the merits of such requests should be assessed carefully.

The FOIA requires that federal agencies determine whether to release requested records within 10 working days, but that period may be extended for an additional 10 working days whenever any of three statutorily defined "unusual circumstances" exist. 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(6)(B). Many agencies are often unable to meet these deadlines due to such factors as the number of requests received, the volume of records sought, decentralized recordkeeping procedures, and limitations on resources--often coupled with the need for a line-by-line review of sensitive documents. The U.S. Court of Appeals for the D.C. Circuit has recognized this problem and has specifically approved the equitable practice of handling requests on a "first-in, first-out" basis. See Open America v. Watergate Special Prosecution Force, 547 F.2d 605, 614-16 (D.C. Cir. 1976), citing 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(6)(C).

At the same time, however, the D.C. Circuit in Open America recognized that some FOIA requests necessarily involve a far greater degree of urgency than others and that when a requester can show "exceptional need or urgency," his request should be processed out of turn. 547 F.2d at 616. The Open America decision did not specify any particular circumstance which might constitute "exceptional need or urgency," so decisions on whether to grant expedition have been left for agency FOIA officers to make on a case-by-case basis. Several years of administrative practice in this area, though, together with at least some specific judicial precedents, have served to develop the following guidelines and considerations.

Threat to Life or Safety

First, FOIA processing should be expedited whenever it is demonstrated that an individual's life or personal safety would be jeopardized by the failure to process a request immediately. Of the handful of court decisions to have ordered expedited processing, almost all have fallen into this category. See, e.g., Exner v. FBI, 443 F. Supp. 1349, 1353 (S.D. Cal. 1978) (plaintiff obtained expedited treatment after leak of information exposed her to harm by organized crime figures), aff'd, 612 F.2d 1202 (9th Cir. 1980); Cleaver v. Kelley, 427 F. Supp. 80, 81 (D.D.C. 1976) (plaintiff faced multiple criminal charges carrying possible death penalty in state court). At the administrative level, the Department of Justice has expedited a request to facilitate disclosure of medical information about a child's father vital to the child's emergency medical treatment. Another agency agreed to process immediately a request from the parents of a young woman believed to be facing a serious threat to her life in the custody of a cult. To be sure, FOIA requests involving substantiated "life-or-death" matters are rare, but no more compelling justification can exist for special FOIA treatment.

Loss of Substantial Due Process Rights

As a general rule, a request also should be expedited if it is shown that substantial due process rights of the requester would be impaired by the failure to process immediately and that the information sought is not otherwise available. Indeed, the practices of many federal agencies reflect such concern for the due process rights of requesters. At the Justice Department's Drug Enforcement Administration, for example, the portion of a drug offender's file that is relevant to an upcoming parole hearing is routinely processed for release out of turn under the FOIA. Similarly, other agencies regularly expedite FOIA requests for information needed in contract award protests so that filing deadlines can be met.

It is not sufficient, however, for a requester merely to allege that requested records are "needed" in connection with some judicial or administrative proceeding; rather, the immediate use of the FOIA must be shown to be critical to the preservation of a substantial right. See Rivera v. DEA, 2 GDS ¶ 81,365 at 81,953 (D.D.C. 1981) ("A pending civil suit does not generally qualify a FOIA demand for expedited processing."). Indeed, in Mitsubishi Electric Corp. v. Department of Justice, 39 Ad. L. Rep.2d (P&F) 1133, 1140-42 (D.D.C. 1976), the court pointedly refused to order expedited processing where a requester had not availed itself of existing civil discovery mechanisms for obtaining the records sought. In connection with criminal proceedings, weak "due process" claims have likewise been found inadequate. See, e.g., Gonzalez v. DEA, 2 GDS ¶ 81,016 at 81,069 (D.D.C. 1980) (use of FOIA as discovery tool to aid standard post-judgment attack on criminal conviction held insufficient); Bubar v. United States Department of Justice, 3 GDS ¶ 83,227 (D.D.C. 1981) (need for documents for preparation as witness in criminal trial held insufficient).

Other Considerations

Beyond these two narrow categories, it is unclear to what extent agencies have the discretion to grant requests for expedition under any other circumstances. Only one judicial decision has ventured beyond these categories -- Schacter v. IRS, 3 GDS ¶ 82,515 at 83,302-03 (D.D.C. 1982), where a court somewhat perfunctorily ordered immediate disclosure of a record related to imminent action by Congress. Moreover, agencies should not forget the interests of all requesters in having their requests treated equitably, as well as the public interest in the integrity of FOIA processing. See Mitsubishi Electric Corp. v. Department of Justice, supra, 39 Ad. L. Rep.2d (P&F) at 1142 (Expedited processing, "if granted, will adversely impact upon the conflicting interests of numerous individuals whose requests and appeals were filed [earlier]."). Because a decision to take a FOIA request out of turn necessarily entails further delay for other requesters waiting patiently in line, simple fairness demands that it be made only upon careful scrutiny of truly exceptional circumstances.

Special FOIA Processing Track for Individuals Appearing Before an Immigration Judge

AGENCY: U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services, DHS.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) is improving its processing of Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) requests from the general public by establishing a third processing track for individuals appearing before an immigration court. Currently, a large portion of FOIA requests are submitted by individuals who have received a Notice To Appear for a hearing before an immigration judge or by such individuals' attorneys or representatives. By creating an additional processing track, USCIS will be able to provide the public with more expeditious service and to thereby improve customer satisfaction.

DATES: This notice is effective March 30, 2007.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background:

Under the Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. 552 ("FOIA"), the Privacy Act, 5 U.S.C. 552a, and the Department of Homeland Security's implementing regulations located at 6 CFR 5.5 (b), the Secretary of Homeland Security may use two or more processing tracks for responding to FOIA requests. Currently, USCIS has two tracks: Track 1 is for less complex requests that can be processed in 20 working days or less. Track 2 is for complex requests that may require more than 20 working days to process and that include searching and line-by-line review of numerous pages of information. With this notice, USCIS will establish a third processing track, the "Notice To Appear" track, which will allow for accelerated access to the Alien-File (A-File) for those individuals who have been served with a charging document and have been scheduled for a hearing before an immigration judge as a result. The creation of this track is consistent with Executive Order 13392, "Improving Agency Disclosure of Information" (December 14, 2005), which requires Federal agencies to improve their FOIA processing.

"Notice To Appear" track cases do not include cases in which the immigration judge has issued a final order or cases in which an appeal of an immigration judge's decision has been filed with the Board of Immigration Appeals (BIA). "Notice To Appear" track cases do not include cases in which the subject's date of scheduled hearing before the immigration judge has passed and current records indicate that the subject failed to appear for his/her scheduled hearing, resulting in closure of the removal/deportation proceedings by the immigration judge.

An Alien-File or A-File is the series of records USCIS maintains on immigrants, certain non-immigrants, applicants for citizenship, certain individuals who have relinquished their United States citizenship, applicants for permanent residence or other immigration benefits, and individuals who have become subjects of immigration enforcement proceedings. The A-File documents the history of such people's interaction with USCIS or other components of the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) in actions prescribed by the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA) and related regulations. USCIS uses the information in an A-File to adjudicate requests for immigration-related benefits and to enforce U.S. immigration laws.

Individuals may request access to their A-files by filing a FOIA request with Form G-639, Freedom of Information/Privacy Act Request, or by having their attorney or representative submit such a request along with a Form G-28, Notice of Entry of Appearance as Attorney or Representative, on their behalf. These forms can be found at <http://www.uscis.gov>.

A requester (including individuals, attorneys, or representatives) seeking to be placed in the queue must provide a copy of one of the following documents:

1. Form I-862, Notice To Appear, documenting the scheduled date of the subject's hearing

2. Form I-122, Order To Show Cause, documenting the scheduled date of the subject's hearing before the immigration judge;
3. A written notice of continuation of a scheduled hearing before the immigration judge; or
4. Form I-863, Notice of Referral to Immigration Judge.

After USCIS receives the request and validates it as a proper request, USCIS will place it in a queue of previously received requests of a similar nature. USCIS will take the requests in the order of receipt, as mandated by the FOIA and the applicable implementing DHS regulations at 6 CFR 5. USCIS will only accept requests for expedited processing for this queue if the requester has satisfied the requirements outlined in 6 CFR 5.5(d).

All other FOIA requirements, as described in 6 CFR part 5, Disclosure of Records and Information, will apply.

This notice does not affect those requests that do not fall in the above-described category.

Re: Notification of Breach of Settlement Agreement
Mayock v. I.N.S. (Civil No. C-85-5169-CAL)

Mirsad Hajro NRC2007075364

Dear Ms. Melville and Ms. Cejka:

This office represents Mr. James Mayock and Mr. Mirsad Hajro.

I

Please consider this letter as notification of breach of the settlement agreement in Mayock v. I.N.S. (Civil No. C-85-5169-CAL). This letter is sent pursuant to paragraph 10 of said agreement. A copy of the settlement agreement is attached to this letter.

Mr. Mayock was the plaintiff in Mayock v. I.N.S., 714 F. Supp 1558 (N.D. Cal. 1989), a case which involved litigation under the Freedom of Information Act. As a result of the litigation in that case, Plaintiff Mayock entered into a settlement agreement with the Department of Justice on May 22, 1992. Under the terms of the settlement agreement:

A (FOIA) requestor who demonstrates, consistent with applicable guidances and law, an "exceptional need or urgency", shall have his/her request processed out of turn on an "expedited" basis. The currently applicable guidance...provides that the FOIA offices are to grant such treatment when the requestor demonstrates that:

a. an individual's life or personal safety would be jeopardized by the failure to process a request immediately; or

b. substantial due process rights of the requestor would be impaired by the failure to process immediately, and the information sought is not otherwise available.

Procedures for Expedited Processing

A request for expedited processing which demonstrates either of the above circumstances shall be processed immediately.

A request which fails to meet the above criteria shall be denied expedited processing and shall be processed on the appropriate track. A requestor must be notified in writing of the decision not to grant the request for expedited treatment, and advised of his/her right and the procedures to appeal the decision...

USCIS currently has a multi track processing for FOIA requests with three tracks: Track One: Routine requests; Track Two: Complex inquiries that normally necessitate additional search and review time; Track Three: Requests by individuals scheduled for a hearing before an immigration judge.

USCIS' current multi track policy allows expedited processing only in cases for aliens scheduled for a hearing before an immigration judge. This violates the settlement agreement in that it does not provide a procedure for a requestor to demonstrate that either A) their life or personal safety would be jeopardized by the failure to process a request immediately or B) substantial due process rights would be impaired by the failure to process immediately in cases other than immigration judge hearings. Examples of such cases include, but are not limited to, Section 336 appeals of denials of citizenship, AAO appeals, BIA appeals, and persons with final orders of deportation.

In addition, to being a breach of the settlement agreement, it our contention that the current procedures USCIS utilizes to respond to FOIA requests violate the 20 day response time set forth in 5 U.S.C. §552(a)(6)(A) and 6 C.F.R. §5.6(b). This 20 day period was recently reconfirmed by Congress in Section 6 of the "Openness Promotes Effectiveness in our National Government Act of 2007" signed by President Bush on December 31, 2007.

II

For example, in a case arising out of the San Jose sub-office, Mirsad Hajro (A77 428 444) applied for naturalization on November 6, 2003. The application was denied on October 9, 2007 for lack of good moral character based on alleged evidence in his alien registration file. Mr. Hajro filed a Section 336 appeal of this decision on or about November 9, 2007 and requested a hearing.

Mr. Hajro then filed a FOIA request for a copy of his alien registration file on November 19, 2007 and specifically requested "Track Three" expedited processing pursuant to the settlement agreement. The FOIA request was accompanied by a letter from his lawyer which explained how Mr. Hajro qualified for expedited processing under the terms of the settlement agreement.

On November 19, 2007 the National Records Center issued a letter denying Mr. Hajro's request for expedited processing because Mr. Hajro is not scheduled for a hearing before an immigration judge. On the same day, the National Records Center issued another letter acknowledging receipt of Mr. Hajro's FOIA request and placing it on the "complex track". His case number is NRC2007075364.

The denial of expedited processing of Mr. Hajro's FOIA request violates the settlement agreement for two reasons: 1) Mr. Hajro demonstrated that substantial due process rights (i.e. the right to a fair hearing under Sec. 336) would be impaired without access to the evidence used to deny his citizenship application and 2) the denial failed to advise Mr. Hajro of his right or any procedures to appeal the decision.

In addition, it is our belief that 6 C.F.R. §5.5(d) violates the settlement agreement in that this regulation governing USCIS' processing of requests for expedited processing does not provide an opportunity to demonstrate that substantial due process rights of the requestor would be impaired by the failure to process immediately, and the information sought is not otherwise available.

Finally, please be advised that it is our intention to file a lawsuit challenging these policies and procedures as violating the settlement agreement unless USCIS takes action to resolve these concerns in the next 30 days. In addition, the lawsuit will challenge the current pattern or practice of USCIS of taking approximately eighteen months to respond to FOIA requests as it exceeds the 20 day time limit set forth in the law.

Very truly yours,

Kip Evan Steinberg

DECISION

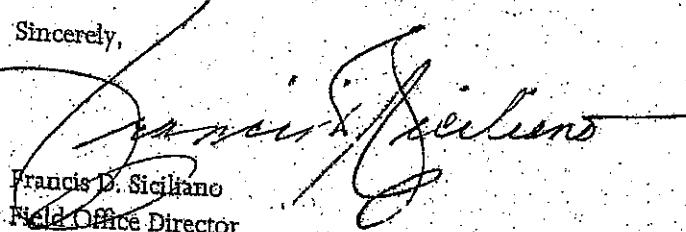

On November 6, 2003, you filed an application for naturalization in accordance with Section 319(a) of the Immigration and Nationality Act. On March 4, 2004, you appeared for an examination of your application for naturalization. On September 26, 2007, you were again interviewed regarding your application for naturalization.

Pursuant to the investigation and examination of your application it is determined that you are ineligible for naturalization for the following reason(s):

See Attachment(s)

If you desire to request a review hearing on this decision pursuant to Section 336(a) of the Act, you must file a request for a hearing within 30 days of the date of this notice (33 days if received by mail). If no request for hearing is filed within the time allowed, this decision is final. A request for hearing may be made to the Field Office Director, with the Citizenship and Immigration Services office that made the decision, on Form N-336, Request for a Hearing on a Decision in Naturalization Proceedings Under Section 336 of the Act, together with the appropriate fee at the time of filing. (Please refer to our website www.uscis.gov for the appropriate fee.) A brief or other written statement in support of your request may be submitted with the Request for Hearing.

Sincerely,

Francis D. Siciliano
Field Office Director

EXHIBIT G

Form N-335

Attachment(s) to Form N-335

Applicant: Mirsad Hajro
Application for Naturalization, Form N-400
Alien Number: A 077428444

Pursuant to the investigation and examination of your application it is determined that you are ineligible for naturalization for the following reason(s):

On November 6, 2003, you applied for naturalization under Section 319(a) of the Immigration and Nationality Act, as amended, herein the Act. On March 4, 2004 and September 26, 2007, you were interviewed by an officer of the Citizenship and Immigration Services, herein the Service, to determine your eligibility for naturalization. You were questioned under oath by the interviewing officer about your answers provided on your N-400 Application. You were also questioned about your service during the war in Bosnia, and you testified to the following: that you served in the army for about six months; that you were drafted in September 1994, and had your training in Zenica; that you had to patrol the streets in your neighborhood; that you got sick during training so they put you in the 16th Division as a clerk; that your duties involve typing letters from the commanders and taking them to communications for encryption.

A review of your record reveals, however, that on November 13, 2000, you were interviewed by an officer of the Service regarding your Form I-485, Application to Register Permanent Residence or Adjust Status. During that interview, you were questioned under oath by the interviewing officer about your answers provided on your I-485 application, Part 3.C, Foreign Military Service. You indicated that you had no foreign military service. Clearly this record indicates that your testimony was not truthful and failed to reveal an accurate image of your past activities in your home country.

Section 316 (a) of the Act states in pertinent part:

"No person...shall be naturalized unless such applicant during the five years immediately preceding the date of filing his application...has been and still is a person of good moral character..."

Title 8, Code of Federal Regulations (8 C.F.R.), part 316.10(b)(2)(vi) states:

"An applicant shall be found to lack good moral character if during the statutory period the applicant has given false testimony to obtain any benefit from the Act, if the testimony was made under oath or affirmation and with an intent to obtain an immigration benefit."

You failed to provide truthful testimony about your foreign military service. By not admitting to serving in the military service in Central Bosnia during the war, this material omission cut off a highly relevant line of questioning that directly related to your admissibility to the United States as a lawful permanent resident. This material misrepresentation occurred during the required time period needed to show good moral character for your naturalization eligibility. Therefore, the Service cannot make a determination that you are a person of good moral character, as required under Section 316(a) of the Act and 8 CFR 316.10(b)(2).

Inasmuch as you have failed to establish that you are a person of good moral character, your application must be and hereby is denied. This decision is made without prejudice toward the filing of a new application in the future.

Hajro

5. Briefly state the reason(s) for this request for a hearing:

Our brief will demonstrate that the applicant did not give false testimony on November 13, 2000 and did not make a material misrepresentation during the required time period to show good moral character.

Addendum to N-336, Item 3, Good Cause Explanation

I have just been retained to represent Mirsad Hajro in this matter. I am requesting a period of 30 days beyond the date I receive a copy of my client's file from USCIS to submit a brief. I need a copy of the file in order to prepare the brief.

Please be advised that I have submitted a request under the Freedom of Information Act to obtain a copy of the file on an expedited basis under the terms of the settlement agreement reached in Mayock v. INS, Case No. C-85-5619-Cal (N.D. Cal. May 22, 1992). This agreement allows expedited treatment for a requestor who demonstrates that substantial due process rights of the requestor would be impaired by the failure to process immediately and the information sought is not otherwise available. For this reason I am respectfully requesting 30 days beyond the date I receive a copy of the file from USCIS.

Re: "TRACK THREE" REQUEST FOR EXPEDITE
Mirsad Hajro
File No. A77 428 444

Dear Sir or Madam:

Please consider this a request for Expedited Processing of the above named individual's FOIA request under the terms of the national settlement agreement in Mayock v. INS, Case No. C-85-5619-Cal (N.D. Cal. May 22, 1992).

As you know, this agreement allows for expedited treatment for a requestor who demonstrates that substantial due process rights of the requestor would be impaired by the failure to process immediately and the information sought is not otherwise available. For the following reasons, my client qualifies for expedited processing:

My client has filed a Request for a Hearing on a Decision in Naturalization Proceedings under Section 336 of the Immigration & Nationality Act. I am attaching a copy of the Request for Hearing (Form N-336) and the October 9, 2007 decision denying my client's naturalization application. I need a copy of my client's alien registration file in order to prepare a brief in support of this administrative appeal. Substantial due process rights of my client would be impaired by the failure to process this FOIA request immediately, since the brief cannot be adequately be prepared without reviewing the documents in my client's file. These include documents upon which the denial was based. This information is not otherwise available. Thank you for attention to this matter.

Very truly yours,

Kip Evan Steinberg

Dear Kip Evan Steinberg:

This letter is in response to your request for expedited treatment regarding the subject: Mirsad Hajro. Your original Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request was received on November 19, 2007.

Even though you have specified in your request that you would like your case processed as a Track 3 case, you did not comply with the requirements set forth in the Federal Register Notice and on our website. You must provide one of the documents below or your request will not be placed in Track 3.

- Form I-862, Notice to Appear
- Form I-122 Order to Show Cause
- Form I-863 Notice of Referral to Immigration Judge
- Written notice of the continuation of a scheduled hearing before the Immigration Judge

Cases in which an immigration judge has issued a final order or those in which an appeal of a decision has been filed with the Board of Immigration Appeals will not be eligible for Track 3. Individuals wishing to move their pending FOIA request to the new track must resubmit based on the above guidelines. Until such time as one of the documents listed above is received, your case will remain in its current track.

Sincerely,

T. Diane Cejka

Dear Kip Evan Steinberg:

We received your request for information relating to Mirsad Hajro on November 19, 2007.

Your request is being handled under the provisions of the Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. § 552). It has been assigned the following control number: NRC2007075364. Please cite this number in any further inquiry about this request.

In accordance with Department of Homeland Security Regulations (6 C.F.R. § 5.3(c)), your request is deemed to constitute an agreement to pay any fees that may be chargeable up to $25.00. Fees may be charged for searching for records sought at the respective clerical, professional, and/or managerial rates of $4.00/$7.00/$10.25 per quarter hour, and for duplication of copies at the rate of $.10 per copy. The first 100 copies and two hours of search time are not charged, and the remaining combined charges for search and duplication must exceed $14.00 before we will charge you any fees. Most requests do not require any fees; however, if fees in excess of $25.00 are required, we will notify you beforehand.

Additionally, we respond to requests on a first-in, first-out basis and on a multi-track system. This is to inform you that your request has been placed in the complex track. Since your request is on the complex track, you may wish to modify it to identify a specific document(s), the exact information sought, and location if known. Upon receipt, we will reconsider your request for eligibility for the faster track.

This office is now able to offer you the option of having your records copied to a Compact Disc (CD) for use on your personal computer. This option is an alternative to paper copies. The CD is readable on all computers through the use of Adobe Acrobat software. A version of Adobe Acrobat will be included on the CD. Your records can be viewed on your computer screen and can be printed onto paper. Only records 15 pages or more are eligible for CD printing. Attorneys automatically receive CDs, unless they contact us to request paper copies. Once an attorney has requested paper copies, all future responsive records will be provided via paper – there is no need to call again. For individuals (i.e., non-attorneys) please call our office at 816-350-5570 to order your record on CD. Once you request your records on either CD or paper, all future records will be furnished in the format you have requested.

Dear Kip Evan Steinberg:

We received your request for information relating to [REDACTED] on April 25, 2005.

Your request is being handled under the provisions of the Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. 552). It has been assigned the following control number: NRC2005032604. Please cite this number in any further inquiry about this request.

In accordance with Department of Homeland Security Regulations (6 CFR 5.3(c)), your request is deemed to constitute an agreement to pay any fees that may be chargeable up to $25.00. Fees may be charged for searching for records sought at the respective clerical, professional, and/or managerial rates of $4.00/$7.00/$10.25 per quarter hour, and for duplication of copies at the rate of $.10 per copy. Dear Kip Evan Steinberg:

This is in response to your Freedom of Information Act (FOIA)/Privacy Act (PA) request received in this office April 25, 2005, regarding your client, [REDACTED]. We have completed the review of all documents and have identified one hundred forty-five (145) pages that are responsive to your request. Enclosed are one hundred thirty-two (132) pages in their entirety. We are withholding one (1) page in full pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 552a (d)(5) of the PA and 5 U.S.C. 552 (b)(5) of the FOIA. In our review of this page, we have determined that it contains no reasonable segregable portions of non-exempt information. We are withholding twelve (12) pages in part pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 552a (k)(2) of the PA and (b)(7)(C) and (b)(7)(E) of the FOIA. Please note you are receiving the best reproducible copies available. The basis for the redactions taken is as follows:

Exemption (b)(5) provides protection for inter-agency or intra-agency memorandums or letters, which would not be available by law to a party other than an agency in litigation with the agency. The types of documents and/or information withheld under this exemption may consist of documents containing predecisional information, documents or other memoranda prepared in contemplation of litigation, or confidential communications between attorney and client.

Exemption (d)(5) permits the government to withhold all documents or information, which are compiled in reasonable anticipation of a civil action or proceeding. This extends to any records compiled in anticipation of civil proceedings, whether prepared by attorneys or lay investigators.

Exemption (b)(7)(C) provides protection for personal information in law enforcement records, which could reasonably be expected to constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy. We have withheld various information relating to third-party individuals. The types of documents and/or information withheld could consist of names, addresses, identification numbers, telephone numbers, fax numbers, or various other documents that are considered personal.

Exemption (k)(2) provides protection to investigatory material compiled for law enforcement purposes. The types of documents and/or information withheld in conjunction with (b)(7)(C) could consist of names, addresses, identification numbers, telephone numbers, fax numbers, or various other documents relating to third party individuals that are considered personal.

Exemption (b)(7)(E) provides protection for records or information for law enforcement purposes which would disclose techniques and procedures for law enforcement investigations or prosecutions, or would disclose guidelines for law enforcement investigations or prosecutions if such disclosure could reasonably be expected to risk circumvention of the law. The types of documents and/or information withheld could consist of law enforcement systems checks, manuals, checkpoint locations, surveillance techniques, and various other documents.

Exemption (k)(2) provides protection to investigatory material compiled for law enforcement purposes. The types of documents and/or information withheld in conjunction with (b)(7)(E) could consist of law enforcement systems checks, manuals, checkpoint locations, surveillance techniques and various other documents.

In the event you wish to appeal this determination, you may write to the USCIS FOIA/PA Appeals Office, 111 Massachusetts Ave., NW, Washington, DC 20529, within 60 days of receipt of this letter. Both the letter and the envelope should be clearly marked "Freedom of Information Act Appeal."

Please be advised that the National Records Center does not process any type of petition/application or any other benefit under the Immigration and Nationality Act. Therefore, if you have any questions or wish to submit documentation relating to a pending petition/application or any other matter pending with the agency, you must address these issues with your nearest District Office.

If you should have any additional questions about your request, please direct your inquiries to this office at the above address. You may also call us at (816) 350-5570 or fax any correspondence to (816) 350-5785.

Dear Kip Evan Steinberg:

This is in response to your Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request received in this office December 19, 2005, regarding your client: [REDACTED]

We have completed our search for records that are responsive to your request and have identified 79 pages. Enclosed are 64 pages in their entirety. We have withheld seven pages in part and eight pages in full pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 552 (b)(2), (b)(5) and (b)(7)(C) of the FOIA. In our review of these pages withheld in full, we have determined that they contain no reasonably segregable portions of non-exempt information. All documents provided are the best reproducible copies available.

Exemption (b)(2) provides protection for records that are related solely to the internal personnel rules and practices of an agency. The types of documents and/or information we have withheld under this exemption may relate to internal matters of a relatively trivial nature, such as internal personnel rules and practices which could consist of employee identification codes, computer login codes, policies regarding the use of parking facilities and breakrooms, employee leave policies and dress codes or internal matters of a more substantial nature, the disclosure of which would risk circumvention of a legal requirement, such as operating rules, guidelines and manuals of procedures for examiners or adjudicators.

Exemption (b)(5) provides protection for inter-agency or intra-agency memorandums or letters, which would not be available by law to a party other than an agency in litigation with the agency. The types of documents and/or information we have withheld under this exemption may consist of documents containing predecisional information, documents or other memoranda prepared in contemplation of litigation, or confidential communications between attorney and client.

- Exemption (b)(2) provides protection for records that are related solely to the internal personnel rules and practices of an agency. The types of documents and/or information that we have withheld under this exemption may relate to internal matters of a relatively trivial nature, such as internal personnel rules and practices which could consist of employee identification codes, computer login codes, policies regarding the use of parking facilities and breakrooms, employee leave policies and dress codes or internal matters of a more substantial nature, the disclosure of which would risk circumvention of a legal requirement, such as operating rules, guidelines and manuals of procedures for examiners or adjudicators.
- Exemption (b)(5) provides protection for inter-agency or intra-agency memorandums or letters, which would not be available by law to a party other than an agency in litigation with the agency. The types of documents and/or information that we have withheld under this exemption may consist of documents containing predecisional information, documents or other memoranda prepared in contemplation of litigation, or confidential communications between attorney and client.
- Exemption (b)(6) permits the government to withhold all information about individuals in personnel, medical and similar files where the disclosure of such information would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy. The types of documents and/or information that we have withheld may consist of birth certificates, naturalization certificates, drivers license, social security numbers, home addresses, dates of birth, or various other documents and/or information belonging to a third party that are considered personal.
- Exemption (b)(7)(C) provides protection for personal information in law enforcement records, which could reasonably be expected to constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy.

We have withheld various information relating to third-party individuals. The types of documents and/or information that we have withheld could consist of names, addresses, identification numbers, telephone numbers, fax numbers, or various other documents that are considered personal.

The enclosed record consists of the best reproducible copies available.

In the event you wish to appeal this determination, you may write to the USCIS FOIA/PA Appeals Office, 111 Massachusetts Ave., NW, Washington, DC 20529, within 60 days of receipt of this letter. Both the letter and the envelope should be clearly marked "Freedom of Information Act Appeal."

Please be advised that the National Records Center does not process petitions, applications or any other type of benefit under the Immigration and Nationality Act. If you have questions or wish to submit documentation relating to a pending application/petition or any other matter pending with this agency, you must address these issues with your nearest District Office.

If you should have any additional questions about your request, please direct your inquiries to this office at the above address. You may also call us at (816) 350-5570 or fax any correspondence to (816) 350-5785.

CLIENT "D"

Dear Kip Evan Steinbert:

We received your request for information relating to your client, [REDACTED], on August 28, 2006.

Your request is being handled under the provisions of the Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. 552). It has been assigned the following control number: NRC2006061058. Please cite this number in any further inquiry about this request.

In accordance with Department of Homeland Security Regulations (6 CFR 5.3(c)), your request is deemed to constitute an agreement to pay any fees that may be chargeable up to $25.00. Fees may be charged for searching for records sought at the respective clerical, professional, and/or managerial rates of $4.00/$7.00/$10.25 per quarter hour, and for duplication of copies at the rate of $.10 per-copy. The first 100 copies and two hours of search time are not charged, and the remaining combined charges for search and duplication must exceed $14.00 before we will charge you any fees. Most requests do not require any fees; however, if fees in excess of $25.00 are required, we will notify you beforehand.

Additionally, we respond to requests on a first-in, first-out basis and on a multi-track system. With this system we consider each request according to the complexity and volume so that requesters with a simple and quick response do not wait for extended periods of time while we review complex voluminous requests. Because of the nature of your request we have placed your request on the complex track. Since your request is on the complex track, you may wish to modify it to identify a specific document(s), the exact information sought, and location if known. Upon receipt, we will reconsider your request for eligibility for the faster track.

This office is now able to offer you the option of having your records copied to a Compact Disc (CD) for use on your personal computer. This option is an alternative to paper copies. The CD is readable on all computers through the use of Adobe Acrobat software. A version of Adobe Acrobat will be included on the CD. Your records can be viewed on your computer screen and can be printed onto paper. Only records 15 pages or more are eligible for CD printing. Attorneys automatically receive CDs, unless they contact us to request paper copies. Once an attorney has requested paper copies, all future responsive records will be provided via paper – there is no need to call again. For individuals (i.e., non-attorneys) please call our office at (816) 350-5570 to order your record on CD. Once you request your records on either CD or paper, all future records will be furnished in the format you have requested.

If you have any questions concerning your pending FOIA/PA request, please address them to this office, Attention: FOIA/PA Officer, or call us at (816) 350-5570, or fax any FOIA/PA related correspondence to (816) 650-5785. If you have questions concerning the status of a pending Application of Petition or any other type of immigration matter, you must contact your local District Office or call the National Customer Service Unit at 1-800-375-5283. The National Records Center cannot assist you concerning any pending Applications of Petitions or any other type of immigration matter.

LAW OFFICES OF
KIP EVAN STEINBERG

Dear Kip Evan Steinberg:

This is in response to your Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request received in this office August 28, 2006, regarding the subject: [REDACTED]

We have completed the review of all documents responsive to your request and have identified 78 pages which are responsive to your request. Enclosed are 64 pages released in their entirety, and 10 pages released in part. We are withholding 4 pages in full. In our review of these pages we have determined that they contain no reasonable segregable portion(s) of non-exempt information. We have reviewed and have determined to release all information except those portions that are exempt pursuant to 5 U.S.C. § 552 (b)(5), (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) and (b)(7)(E) of the FOIA.

The following exemptions are applicable:

Exemption (b)(5) provides protection for inter-agency or intra-agency memorandums or letters, which would not be available by law to a party other than an agency in litigation with the agency. The types of documents and/or information that we have withheld under this exemption may consist of documents containing predecisional information, documents or other memoranda prepared in contemplation of litigation, or confidential communications between attorney and client.

Exemption (b)(6) permits the government to withhold all information about individuals in personnel, medical and similar files where the disclosure of such information would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy. The types of documents and/or information that we have withheld may consist of birth certificates, naturalization certificates, drivers license, social security numbers, home addresses, dates of birth, or various other documents and/or information belonging to a third party that are considered personal.

Exemption (b)(7)(C) provides protection for personal information in law enforcement records, which could reasonably be expected to constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy. We have withheld information relating to third-party individuals. The types of documents and/or information that we have withheld could consist of names, addresses, identification numbers, telephone numbers, fax numbers, or various other documents that are considered personal.

Exemption (b)(7)(E) provides protection for records or information for law enforcement purposes which would disclose techniques and procedures for law enforcement investigations or prosecutions, or would disclose guidelines for law enforcement investigations or prosecutions if such disclosure could reasonably be expected to risk circumvention of the law. The types of documents and/or information that we have withheld could consist of law enforcement systems checks, manuals, checkpoint locations, surveillance techniques, and various other documents.

The enclosed record consists of the best reproducible copies available.

In the event you wish to appeal this determination, you may write to the USCIS FOIA/PA Appeals Office, FOIA Appeals Office, 150 Space Center Loop, Suite 500, Lee's Summit, MO 64064-2139, within 60 days of receipt of this letter. Both the letter and the envelope should be clearly marked "Freedom of Information Act Appeal."

Please be advised that the National Records Center does not process petitions, applications or any other type of benefit under the Immigration and Nationality Act. If you have questions or wish to submit documentation relating to a matter pending with the bureau, you must address these issues with your nearest District Office.

If you should have any additional questions about your request, please direct your inquiries to this office at the above address. You may also call us at 816-350-5570 or fax any correspondence to 816-350-5785.

Sincerely,

Re: FOIA Appeal
Mirsad Hajrol (A77 428 444)
File No. NRC2007075364

Dear Sir or Madam:

On behalf of my above named client, I filed a FOIA request on November 19, 2007. On November 30, 2007 we received the enclosed letters from the National Records Center. One letter acknowledged receipt of the FOIA request and placed it on the "complex track". (Exhibit A) The other letter denied our request for expedited processing. (Exhibit B) Please be advised that I consider this as an adverse decision and request that you consider this letter as an appeal. Pursuant to 5 U.S.C. §552(a)(6)(E), we are requesting expeditious consideration of this denial of expedited processing.

1. Appeal of Denial of Expedited Processing

We requested expedited processing of the above named individual's FOIA request under the terms of the national settlement agreement in Mayock v. INS, Case No. C-85-5619-Cal (N.D. Cal. May 22, 1992). A copy of our letter and the Settlement Agreement are attached to this letter. (Exhibit C & D)

The Settlement Agreement allows for expedited treatment for a requestor who demonstrates that substantial due process rights of the requestor would be impaired by the failure to process immediately and the information sought is not otherwise available. For the following reasons, my client qualifies for expedited processing:

My client has filed a Request for a Hearing on a Decision in Naturalization Proceedings under Section 336 of the Immigration & Nationality Act. I am attaching a copy of the Request for Hearing (Form N-336) (Exhibit E) and the October 9, 2007 (Exhibit F) decision denying my client's naturalization application. I need a copy of my client's alien registration file in order to prepare a brief in support of this administrative appeal. Substantial due process rights of my client would be impaired by the failure to process this

FOIA request immediately, since the brief cannot be adequately be prepared without reviewing the documents in my client's file. These include documents upon which the denial was based. This information is not otherwise available.

The denial of expedited processing violates the Settlement Agreement because my client has demonstrated that substantial due process rights will be impaired by the failure to process this FOIA request immediately.

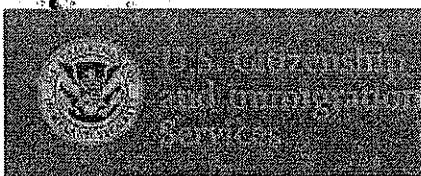

2. Appeal of Failure to Provide Requested Records in Twenty Days.

Failure to provide the requested records in twenty days violates 5 U.S.C. §552(a)(6)(A) and 6 C.F.R §5.6(b). In addition the failure to notify my client of the "unusual circumstances" which prevents the agency from processing his request within the 20 day statutory limit and the failure to notify him of the date by which processing of his request can be expected to be completed violates 6 CFR § 5.5(c)(1).

Very truly yours,

Kip Evan Steinberg

Making a FOIA or PA request:

1. To Request USCIS Records: Unless otherwise noted below, mail or fax all requests for USCIS records, including alien files and procurement information, to the National Records Center at the address listed above. Please note: ALL FOIA REQUESTS MUST BE SUBMITTED IN WRITING. Form G-639 (available at www.uscis.gov) may be used for this purpose, but is not required. Please see "How to make a FOIA or PA request" for detailed information necessary to process your request. Unfortunately, we are unable to accept FOIA or PA requests by e-mail at this time.
2. To Request Human Resources Information: Mail requests for this information to: Customs and Border Protection, Burlington Human Resources Office, 70 Kimball Avenue, South Burlington, Vermont 05403-6813.
3. To Request Certifications: Certification of Nonexistence of a Record involves an agency decision. The USCIS Office of Records Management prepares this documentation. Requests for this service should be addressed to U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services, ATTN: Records Service Branch, 111 Massachusetts Avenue, NW, 4th Floor, Washington, D.C. 20529.
4. To Request Customs and Border Patrol records: Effective October 1, 2007, mail all requests for non-Alien file Customs and Border Patrol records to U.S. Customs and Border Protection, 1300 Pennsylvania Ave., N.W., Attn: Mint Annex Building, FOIA Division, Washington, D.C. 20229.

Reading Rooms:
1. Conventional Reading Room:

The USCIS Public Reading Room is located at 111 Massachusetts Avenue, N.W. 1st Floor, Washington, D.C. 20529. The hours of operation are 9:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m., Monday through Friday. The Reading Room is closed on Federal holidays. Please contact the Freedom of Information Office at (202) 272-8280 to make arrangements to view information in the Reading Room. At this on-site location you can review information that has been placed in binders and shelved, or you can take advantage of two computers made ready for electronic viewing of information maintained in our Electronic Reading Room.

The majority of information in our public reading room is made up of Administrative Decisions. The numerous Decisions have been indexed and categorized to assist you in navigating to your desired document.

2. Electronic Reading Room (ERR):

The ERR includes frequently requested records, opinions, policy statements, and staff manuals/instructions to staff, created after November 1, 1996.

Multitrack Processing:

USCIS uses a three-track system to process FOIA requests.

- Track One: Routine requests;
- Track Two: Complex inquiries that normally necessitate additional search and review time; and
- Track Three: Requests by individuals scheduled for a hearing before an immigration judge.

Track Three became effective March 30, 2007. It consists of FOIA requests of individuals who are scheduled to appear before an immigration judge. The new track allows for accelerated access to A-files requested through the FOIA process, provided an individual or the individual's representative includes at least one of the following documents with the FOIA request:

- Notice to Appear (Form I-862);
- Order to Show Cause (Form I-122);
- Notice of Referral to Immigration Judge (Form I-863); or
- A written request of continuation of a scheduled hearing before the immigration judge.

Requesters wishing to move a pending FOIA request to this new Track Three for processing must resubmit the request and comply with the above requirements.

Notice of this new track was published in the Federal Register February 28, 2007. A link to the Federal Register Notice is located under "Related Links" on this page.

FOIA Requester Service Center:

The National Records Center operates a call center to answer questions about filing a request, provide status updates of pending requests, and otherwise provide assistance in obtaining records from USCIS. The call center operates from 7:00 AM to 2:15 PM Central Time. The phone number to reach a call center representative is (816) 350-5570. You may also fax inquiries to the National Records Center at (816) 350-5785, or e-mail your questions to uscis.foia@dhs.gov.
